Connecticut Wealth Management, LLC, a Registered Investment Advisor located in the greater Hartford area, is proud to announce that co-founders Denis Horrigan and Kevin Leahy have been included as part of Medical Economics' 2016 list of Best Financial Advisers for Doctors.

Connecticut Wealth Management's independent, objective model aligns our thinking with that of our client. As a result, our financial advisors offer personalized strategies designed so each client can identify, plan and work toward their unique financial goals.

Welcome to what financial planning should be.

As planners by profession and by nature, our Connecticut Wealth Management consultants constantly anticipate future developments to keep our clients on track. After developing an initial financial plan, we make regular adjustments in response to market variations and major life events. Our cutting-edge online technology equips clients with a comprehensive view of their assets at a glance.

Connecticut Wealth Management focuses on offering independent guidance to our clients, from establishing goals to developing a plan to help take them there. Unlike other firms that have products to sell, our advisors offer objective advice through a fee-based structure. Our industry leading client-to-advisor ratio allows us to immerse ourselves in our clients' entire financial landscape and deliver personalized service.

Many of our clients have diverse assets in multiple locations, which can make it challenging to understand a snapshot of their holdings at any moment in time. Whether or not Connecticut Wealth Management manages all of your assets, we make it possible to monitor and actively manage your portfolio as you look to the future.

About Medical Economic' Best Financial Advisers for Doctors

The Medical Economics Best Financial Advisers for Doctors listing is based on the following criteria: qualifications, good standing with the SEC and FINRA, fee arrangements, and minimum portfolio. Medical Economics Best Financial Advisers is a paid Listing advertising supplement, written and published by Advanstar Communications Inc. as a source of information concerning individual financial advisers for use by physicians, health care professionals, and the public. The listing is provided as a service to its subscribers, and the Medical Economics best Financial Advisers Advertising Supplement does not contain sufficient information to verify the Advisers credentials but it does offer the public, physicians, hospitals, and managed care organization, and other care organizations general information pertaining to the listed advisers. Adviser data is self-reported by the Adviser. References to any specific adviser does not imply or constitute an endorsement, recommendation, or favoring of such Adviser by the Publisher or any of its affiliates.
