Farmington, CT – December 3, 2015 -- Connecticut Wealth Management, LLC, a Registered Investment Advisor located in the greater Hartford area, is proud to announce that co-founders Denis Horrigan and Kevin Leahy have been included as part of Medical Economics' 2015 Best Financial Advisers for Doctors.

The award honors advisors who are experts in serving medical professionals, taking into account credentials, education, areas of expertise, total assets under management, percentage of physician clients, noteworthy professional achievements, and affiliations with medical organizations.

"At Connecticut Wealth Management, we take extreme pride in serving as trusted advisors for top healthcare executives," said Kevin Leahy, co-founder and CEO of Connecticut Wealth Management. "Doctors, like all of our clients, present a unique set of challenges around managing their wealth and planning for their and their children's future. Our team of advisors strive each day to address those needs with the individual attention our clients deserve. Many of the country's top rated healthcare companies are right in our backyard and we are honored to be listed among the top financial planners who serve this vitally important profession."

Founded in 2010 and located in the heart of Connecticut's healthcare industry, Connecticut Wealth Management provides financial planning and asset management to individuals, families, business owners and executives, including medical professionals, across the state and nationwide. The firm focuses on offering independent guidance to its clients, from establishing financial goals to developing a plan to help take them there. The firm provides a fee-based approach that eliminates conflict and yields unbiased financial advice, currently managing more than $500 million in assets.
